INFORMATION MANUAL

Published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000

Preamble

Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 ("the Act"), requires that we, as a private body duly incorporated in terms of the Company laws of South Africa, compile a manual giving information to the public regarding the procedure to be followed in requesting information from us for the purpose of exercising or protecting rights. Inside these pages you will be able to view the categories of information which we possess. You will also be shown the correct procedure to follow should you require access to any of this information. A copy of this manual is also available on our website www.cansa.org.za.

Introduction to the Cancer Association of South Africa

The Cancer Association of South Africa's (CANSAs) purpose is to lead the fight against cancer in South Africa by offering a unique, integrated service to the public which involves holistic cancer care and support to all people affected by cancer. Its mission is to be the preferred non-profit leader that enables research, educates the public and provides support to all people affected by cancer. CANSA is a Section 21 Company registered not for gain.

The above-mentioned records are of a confidential nature and only accessible to authorised people.

4.3. The request procedures

For the sake of convenience and accessibility, the guidelines, forms and fee structure are posted on the SAHRC's website (www.sahrc.org.za) or the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (www.doj.gov.za) (under "regulations") which will contain the forms and the fee structure.

Form of request:

- The requester must use the prescribed form (see attached Annexure A) to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the head of the private body. This request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned [s 53(1)].
- The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the head of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed [s 53(2)(a) and (b) and (c)].
- The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right [s 53(2)(d)].
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body [s 53(2)(f)].

Fees:

A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee:

- The head of the private body must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request [s 54(1)].
- The fee that the requester must pay to a private body is R50. The requester may lodge an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee [s 54(3)(b)].
- After the head of the private body has decided on the request, the requester must be notified in the required form.
- If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure [s 54(6)].

5. Other information as may be prescribed [Section 51(1)(f)]

The Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development has not made any regulations in this regard.
